HE "TREATY PORTS OF CHIN & JAPAN," AND "NOTES AND QUERIES ON CHINA AND JAPAN.

EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS. (From the "Friend of India," June 4, 1868. We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the numbers for the current year of "Notes and Queries," a most deserving Anglo-Chinese monthly, edited by Mr N. B. Dennys, whose "Treaty Ports of China and Japan" are so well known. From the names attached to the "Notes" we can see that the contributors include some of the best Chinese scholars in the East. Its interest is not confined to China, and it wil be of valuable essistance to all scholars, who have directed their attention towards the subject of Buddhism and its literature, and generally to all who are interested in oriental antiquities. It deserves to be better known in India. (From the "Stratts Times," July 27, 1868.) Some time ago we had occasion to remark upon the progress that Literature as represented by the Press had made and was making in the East, and our attention has again been called to the subject by the receipt of a Hongkoug publication which deserves some notice and which we have much pleasure in introducing to the knowledge of our readers. We allude to Notes Queries on thing and Japan, published monthly by Mr Saint, the proprietor of the China Mail newspaper. This publication is well printed on good paper, and in size and shape is very like its well-known namesake or prototype at home, and is equally mine containing very curious and useful information regarding the language, literature, history, manners and customs of the Chinese and in a less degree of the Japanese. It says a good deal for the extent and stability of the footing of Europeans in China, that such a publication as this should be established and conducted with apparently successful vigour. The publication is altogether a very in teresting one, and wishing it every success we commend it to the attention and support of our readers.

(From the "Lindon Examiner," May

This really useful volume ["Treaty Ports China and Japan " is intended as a guide for travellers and residents in China and Japan, and as a book of reference for mercantile men generally. It contains a account, historical and political, of all the open ports of these countries, together with Peking, Yedo, Hongkong, and Macao. has been carefully compiled and edited by orders for any Newspaper or Magazine | Mr N. B. Dennys; and the elaborate maps published in England or The United and plans, with which the work abounds, considerably enhance its value.  * We have thus given in outline some the more prominent portions of the chapter voted to Canton, as a specimen of the whole volume. Other chapters treating Macao, Formosa, Ningpo, Shanghae, and the remaind r of the treaty ports, we can enumerate. The pages describing Peking, the capital, are so interesting, and contain so much that is new to European readers respecting its history, public buildings, and general characteristics, that we would fain transfer them to our columns. A complete and intelligible plan of the Imperial City and neighbourhood, gives us au accurate notion of the relative position of its divisions, streets, and places.

In the introductory chapter to the notices of the Treaty forts of Japan will be found a succinct history of that Empire, together with remarks on its government, geography, and limits, which will be found particularly interesting as throwing a considerable light on a part of the world so long entirely, and still comparatively, unknown to Europeans. The descriptions of Nagasaki, Yedo, Yokohama, and the other Treaty Ports of Japan, are as elaborate and entertaining as those of the Chinese ports. A copions in-dex and a useful appendix e utaining manyl hints and much appropriate advice to tra-vellers and others, is also included in the volume. The entire work affords a vast amount of information; pleasantly written,

MR. GORDON'S EXPEDITION TO BHANMO

The attentions bestowed upon Mr Gordon by the King of Burmah, and the facili ties for his journey which he met with from Mandalay to Bhanmo, form so great a contrast to the difficulties encountered by Captain Sladen and his party along the same route, as to give color to the report that the opposition of the Native Chiefs was secretencouraged from Mandalay. Finding, however, that all the obstructions placed in Captain Sladen's way had not been sufficient to prevent his carrying out his journey, the Court party at Mandalay have thought it prudent to adopt another course, and have rendered Mr Gordon every assistance in their power. SITTINGS OF THE SUPREME COUP IN VACATION. (Pefore the Hon. the CHIEF JUSTICE.)

Tuesday, 2nd September, 1868. REGINA D. SAINT: In respect of an Ex Officio Information for Libel against Senhor Amaral.

Before proceeding to give my decision on the question now before me, argued on the 20th of last month, I again entreat the
